Job Description: Demo Technician

Company Profile:

Phoenix Restoration Services, Inc. was established in 2009 and specializes in commercial and residential insurance repair work - specifically fire, water, mold and catastrophe damage repair as well as general construction work. The normal operating zone for work to be performed has been established as Mobile and Baldwin Counties in Southwest Alabama. We also perform catastrophe and specialty work along the I-10 corridor on the Gulf Coast.

Job Description:

The Demo Technician will be an individual that is capable of performing general demolition tasks. This position is a customer service based position and the employee is expected to be respectful and personable at all times, more importantly in a customer's home or property. This employee must possess enough skills to complete assigned tasks given to them on a daily basis by their reported supervisor. The Demo Technician is expected to be timely, organized, clean, professional and detail oriented. Typical daily activities include: demolition of building materials in occupied homes and businesses & assisting other employees with carpentry and tile as well as other general construction and handyman tasks. This individual will also be required to help with water mitigation projects – this includes operating water extraction machine, setting drying equipment and taking moisture readings. Individual may be required to handle mold, asbestos, lead paint and other hazardous materials (approved training will be offered by company). May include work under houses or in attics. This position will require daily travel in the company's operating zone.
